

The Singapore Scout Foundation Newsletter

Edition 3

In the second issue released in 2013, the coverage was on the feedbacks from the respective Group Scout Leaders (GSLs) who had received help from Unit Development Consultants (UDCs) as well as the feedbacks of the two UDCs.

In this issue, we will focus on the feedbacks of 6 needy deserving scouts who were funded by the Singapore Scout Foundation Fund (SSFF) to attend various jamborees.

"The Jamboree was fun-filled and enjoyable. I learnt many things from the Jamboree. It is a platform to meet many new friends and also bond more with the people".

Goh Kah Meng - Edgefield Secondary School
30th APR Scout Jamboree

I learnt a lot about teamwork and maintaining friendship, one of the key elements in the scout law. We helped each other. My scout friends helped me. Although I did not understand much Japanese but we could still talk to each other".

Muhd Khairul Bin Hamzah - Metta School
30th APR Scout Jamboree

"The visit to Hiroshima Peace Memorial for the Peace Programme was an eye-opener. The idea of the programme is, if any nation try to be supreme by developing a powerful nuclear weapon, other nations will try to outdo them. The result is a stockpile of very deadly weapons of mass destruction. However if no one had any nuclear weapons, then no nation would see a need to develop any. This is a fight for peace."

Shawn Tang - Soaring Eagle Scout Group
30th APR Scout Jamboree

“Three things that I learnt in the Jamboree are:-

1. I became more disciplined after the Jamboree
2. I realised every one among us had at least one weakness/ flaw
3. I learnt that making friends was not as hard as I had expected

Al Marzuq Muhaimin
Punggol Phoenix Scout Group
4th Brunei National Jamboree

“I thank the Singapore Scout Foundation and the Singapore Scout Association for sponsoring me to the Jamboree. This is my first ever jamboree and I have enjoyed it very much”.

Tan Choon Hao
Serangoon Eagle Scout Group
25th Johor International Jamboree

“The camp was a very memorable one for me. I made many new friends from both local and overseas scouts. We made fast progress from beings strangers to friends and friends to siblings. That was what I had experienced during the 4th ASEAN Scout Jamboree”.

Thavaneesan Mohan
Serangoon Eagle Scout Group
4th ASEAN Scout Jamboree
